KOWLOON DOCK BALL

LAST NIGHT'S REVEL

AS BRILLIANT AS EVER.

To the normal nocturnal clangor of the Kowloon Docks was added last evening a new sound—the sound of revelry. The occasion was the annual ball given by the staff of the Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Company and that as everybody knows, is one of the outstanding events of Hong Kong's winter season. The energetic committee in charge of the arrangements saw to it that last night's revel was not a bit less brilliant an affair than the many enjoyable functions that preceded it. Mr. George Duncan was chiefly responsible for the decorative scheme and those who remember what a wonderful place he made the City Hall appear to be on St. Andrew's night will be able to guess what sort of a show he made when playing, so to speak, on the home ground. The big moulding loft where the dancing was done seemed to have had it roof replaced by a canopy of banyan trees, with big electric light-gas substitutes for the sun, peeping through the leaves at

"Many a man and many a maid, dancing in the chequered shade." Red Japanese lanterns, contrasting with the greenery, shed a genial glow at opposite ends of the hall, were brilliantly illuminated shields bearing the figures 1898 and 1922 (showing that this is the 50th year of the Company's existence), and an illuminated representation of the familiar "H.W.D.O." flag. Mr. F. C. Coleman handled the illuminations and he and Messrs. D. Keith and W. Greig who gave valuable help to Mr. Duncan deserve a good share of the congratulations to be handed out for the success of last night's carnival.

Prominent people present at the ball included: Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dyer, Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Claud Severn, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. M. Bernard, Hon. Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Lang, Hon. Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Stephen, Dr. and Mrs. Forsyth, Commander and Mrs. Buckwith, Mr. and Mrs. E. Cook, Mr. Percy A. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. A. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. J. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. R. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bell, Lieut. Commander Hake, Mr. H. P. White, and representatives of the chief firms and shipping companies.

The dance programme, for which capital music was furnished by the King's Regiment band, was as follows:

- Extra Waltz
1. Lancers "Bohemian Boys"
 2. Foxtrot "Ka Kappy"
 3. One Step "Swanee Rose"
 4. Waltz "Sleeping Willow Lane"
 5. Eightsome Reel "Happy"
 6. Foxtrot "I never knew"
 7. One Step "Kilkee Kourts'ip"
 8. Caledonians "Sweet William"
 9. Waltz "Sweet William"
- SUPER DANCE
10. Foxtrot "Smilin'"
 11. On Step "Bonnie Jean"
 12. Foxtrot "In Romance"
 13. Waltz "Alice Blue Gown"
 14. One Step "Romany Love"
 15. Foxtrot "Keep one going"
 16. Eightsome Reel "Happy"
 17. Waltz "Southern Moon"
 18. One Step "Happy"
 19. Caledonians "April Showers"
 20. Foxtrot "Mr. Mammy"
 21. One Step "Love's Lullaby"
 22. Waltz "Tell her at Twilight"
 23. Foxtrot "Tell her at Twilight"
 24. Waltz "Oriental Memories"
- Under a huge variegated dome was served an excellent supper, for which the Hongkong Hotel people were responsible, and at the principal table Mr. Dyer the chief manager of the Dock Company, entertained a number of official guests. A well-stocked bar (with plenty of comfortable seating accommodation) where hospitality was dispensed with a lavish hand did much to console those who had "missed the bus" when the programmes were being marked up.
- Beside a three-deck ice-cream stand a good deal of hard work was well and faithfully done by members of the General Committee, Messrs. D. Keith (President), George Duncan (Vice-President), W. Forsyth (Hon. Secretary), J. Smyth (Hon. Treasurer), A. M. Fitch, W. Greig, M. L. Milne, G. E. Guthrie, W. Johnston and W. Hedley.
- In commemoration of the Battle of the Somme (1915-1918) a display was opened at Ransome Donkey, near the Ransome Dock, and a number of British and French representatives

When Mary Pickford's phenomenally popular screen version of "Little Lord Fauntleroy" reaches the end of its season at the Coronet on Sunday it will give place to a picture of a quite different type which is no less fine an achievement.

Entitled "Disraeli" it is based on the life of the famous statesman of that name who was twice appointed by Queen Victoria to be her Prime Minister. It is Mr. George Arliss, well remembered amongst local kinemagoers for his wonderful performance in "The Devil" who appears in the title role and it was a fitting choice for he played the part for many years on the legitimate stage.

The real facts concerning Disraeli's life and the times he lived in have been woven very cleverly into an absorbing romance and Mr. Louis N. Parker, the playwright, is highly to be congratulated upon the result. He certainly deserves a share of the wealth of praise which has been bestowed upon Mr. Arliss for his masterly portrayal of the great English statesman.

DUTY ON CHEQUES

REDUCED TO 5 CENTS.

MR. LOWE MET HALFWAY.

During the budget debate Mr. A. R. Lowe urged that the stamp duty on cheques should be reduced from 10 cents to 5 cents. The Government has gone half way towards meeting his suggestion for to day's Gazette, announces that cheques in future will only require a five cent stamp.

A note explaining the regulations made on the subject by the Governor in Council states:—

"Regulation 1 of the above regulations reduces the duty on cheques from 10 cents to 5 cents. This will take effect on the 1st March, 1923. Regulation 2 is intended to facilitate the change from the one duty to the other, and it will make possible the issue and use before the above date of cheques bearing an impressed stamp of 5 cents. Up to and including 28th February, 1923, such cheques must also bear a 5 cents revenue stamp, which should be affixed and cancelled before the cheque is signed.

Regulations 1 and 2 of the regulations of the 24th February, 1923, are superseded by sections 8 and 10 of the Stamp Amendment Ordinance, 1922. Regulation 3 of those regulations was a temporary provision which is now spent.

The only other regulation under the Stamp Ordinance 1921, which are now in force are those which were published in the Gazette of the 27th January, 1922.

In advocating the reduction during the budget debate Mr. Lowe said:—

"It has been long recognised that robbers from Europeans are practically non-existent because they hardly ever carry any money beyond a few cents for current, chair hire, robberies from bicycles and private houses are chiefly incurred from the knowledge that dealing there in are conducted in cash, and the probability that large cash sums are available on the premises at all hours. The more payment by cheque is in vogue, the necessity for cash in hand is reduced to a minimum and the incentive to robbery is removed. To help this movement, I suggest that the duty of 10 cents on cheques be reduced to 1 cent. It would not cost the Government much and it would have the additional advantage that, on the extended use of Bank Accounts, fabrication of books will be made much more difficult. The items have to pass through a third party."

Deep-Seated Abscess in the Hip.
Remarkable Recovery after undergoing three operations without success.

Our Patient is Mrs. LAMBTON, of Mont's Mill, Wiltshire, England.
I am writing to tell you of the benefit I have derived from Clarke's Blood Mixture. I had a deep-seated abscess in my hip and was laid up about fourteen months. I was in hospital nine months and had three operations. Still I was no better, so I asked to come home. I had been home three weeks still feeling very ill, so I thought I would try Clarke's Blood Mixture. The first bottle I used fetched the pus out and cured the abscess, and by the time I had taken half the second bottle I was able to get up and walk. I am now perfectly well and have lost all the pain and suffering I have undergone. I am sure if people suffering the same as I was would give Clarke's Blood Mixture a fair trial it would do them good. You can make matters worse by the use of this.

CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE, by reason of its remarkable blood purifying properties, can be relied upon to give speedy relief and lasting benefit in cases of Eczema, Red Itch, Acne, Ulcers, Boils, Pimples, Eruptions, Piles, Glandular Swellings, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Gout, Psoriasis, and free from anything injurious. Of all Dealers—1/6 per bottle and 3/6 per bottle.

OPIUM SWINDLECHINESE DEALERS FOILED.

BEAUTIFUL GIRL AND BLUE FUNNEL
ENGINEERS.

A particularly clever swindle has been perpetrated in the illicit market in opium and other "minister" drugs in the Pennyfields quarter of Lincolnshire.

Since the Metropolitan Police have become more alive to the methods of opium dealers, the supply of opium in London's Chinatown has been on the down grade.

There are, however, many addicted
to this drug in London and roundabout who cannot live without it, and these poor wretches are prepared to pay any price for it.

The principal victim of this swindle,
a Chinese, who has long been under police surveillance, but hitherto has been careful enough not to commit himself, is one of the few remaining large distributors of the drug. He has numerous emissaries, also from Cathay, who "run" the drug, and also cocaine, up to the West End, and dispose of it at high prices.

About ten weeks ago this opium mandarin received a clandestine visit from a beautiful English girl, who lost no time in exercising her wiles on the Chinese. The news that she was married added greater zest to the Celestial's joy, and when she said her husband was an engineer in a Blue Funnel boat—owned by a famous line which trades with the Far East—her host's brain began to work quickly.

Eventually the Chinese asked her if she could persuade her husband to call on some Chinese at Hongkong and bring back a parcel of opium.
The woman said she thought that, not only could she influence her husband to do so, but also her brother, another engineer in the same ship. But they are on their way to China now,
said he wrote.

"Don't write," said the Chinese.
"That's so good, wait till they come home and they can get some the next time." He wrote.

Recently the girl went to the Chinese, who thought he had her in his clutches, with the news that her husband's boat had reached

Glasgow, and that he and her brother were coming to London by train.

"You bring 'em see me, eh?" asked the Celestial. This girl said she would.

She kept her word. Two nights later two hefty-looking engineers were usherred by her into the presence of the Chinese, who, after a bottle
of whisky had been emptied,

made known his scheme.

"Why," exclaimed the husband,
"we brought 50lbs. across with us and got it out of the ship in the false bottom of a trunk. We are going to trade it to—" (mentioning a prominent Chinese opium dealer in another part of Pennyfields).

"Don't take it to him. Him a robber. You sell to me. I pay best prices," said the Chinese.

"Yes; let him have it, Jack,"
interposed the girl to her husband.

"He's a sport."

The engineers discussed the matter apart, and in the end told the Chinese that he could have the 50lbs.
of poppyjuice at a price.

The Chinese realised that the price was high, but counted on raising his retail prices and realising a good profit.
He also wanted to see a sample.

Within an hour he had one; it was of the finest opium, and was enclosed in the usual red paper packet which bore, in Chinese hieroglyphics, the approved brand mark. That was good enough for him; and he agreed to take delivery next night.

The following evening the engineers, accompanied by the girl, arrived with a leather kit bag, from which they produced a number of packets (exactly similar in appearance to the sample).

The Celestial had hardly paid the men,
when, with a shout of "Hoy moon"
("Open the door"), in dashed a posse of detectives, arrested everybody, and seized nearly everything in the house.

While some of the raiders removed the two engineers, the girl and the opium from the house, two remained behind with the Chinese to search the premises in his presence. They collected everything of value, made a duplicate inventory, handed the Chinese a counterfoil, and at the same time prepared to remove him.

Like a good Chinese, he thought a habe might work, and from an undiscovered store he took some money
and offered it to the two captors.

Back looked the other, and their one said to the Chinese: "We can

"BEAVER."

16 YEARS UNSHA-
VEN THROUGH POLITICAL VOW.

Few people were more intensely interested in the result of the recent Home-election than Mr. Frederick Wilkins, of the Towtree Inn,
Burgill near Hereford.

When at the 1906 election the Conservatives were defeated and a Liberal Government was returned to power, Mr. Wilkins made a vow
—and backed the vow with a wager
—that he would neither have his hair cut nor be shaved until the Liberals were removed from office.

During all these 16 years, Mr.
Wilkins's hair and beard have flourished, for he has been faithful to his vow. His hair covers his shoulders, except when it is fastened up with hairpins, and his beard flows far down over his waistcoat.

"The bet still holds good," he told a Daily Mail reporter recently,
"and I am not taking the risk of having my hair cut till all the results are made known."

"I feel certain that the Conservative Government will be returned to power, and then I expect the barber to be called in."

He gave you five minutes in which to clear.

The Chinese took the chance, and while he was "burying" as fast as he could into Essex the two "detectives" hustled to join their confederates who were again arresting the engineers and the girl at another opium dealer's.

The coup in each case, was complete, except that at the second dealer's one of the packets of the drug brought by the "engineers" was left behind. When this dealer returned from his long walk next day he found the packet and examined it.
There was not a grain of opium in it,
and its chief constituent seemed to be a very basic kind of brown sugar.

The two dealers continue very reticent about the whole affair, and would be the last people in the world to welcome police inquiries.

UPS AND DOWNS.

The latter half of July saw an active business at advancing prices. Communications with the silk district were still suspended, however, through the help and courtesy of the local authorities, facilities were placed at the disposal of the Foreign Silk Association and two convoys were organised under the protection

Mrs. John F. Fortescue, Miss Selena Boyle, and Miss Gladys Hartley.

At the Hotel Plaza, in New York, the Hon. Mrs. John F. Fortescue, of London, gave a fashion show and tableaux, the proceeds for the Soldiers and Sailors' Club. Prominent actresses acted as models.

A Good Roads movement is under way in Siam. This photograph shows the King of Siam and his family inspecting a thoroughly modern dredging machine used in the building. It is run by gasoline and will remove and separate 250 cubic yards of earth an hour.

Mrs. Winifred Mason Huck.

Mrs. Winifred Mason Huck, daughter of the late Congressman William E. Mason, of Illinois, has been elected to succeed her father.

Believes that while the human physical body sleeps the ethereal body slips away for a nocturnal prowling in some distant part of the globe.

This photograph shows relatives and friends crowding around the mouth of the Reilly Mine, at Spangler, Pa., where more than eighty men lost their lives in an explosion.

University of Minnesota lights adopted the garb of their grandmothers in a big parade to boost the drive for the $3,000,000 athletic stadium. During the school days of their grandmothers the drive was for funds to build an armory, and now they adopt a similar plea for the youths of 1922.

Quebec relics of long ago are still in use. Bakeries are still maintained in the open.

M. Jean Longuet.

M. Jean Longuet, noted French Socialist, against whom many Americans protested when it was announced he was to lecture in America, urging that his passport be not voided, has arrived in New York. He is strongly opposed to M. Georges Clemenceau and is fighting the "Tiger" American propaganda tour.

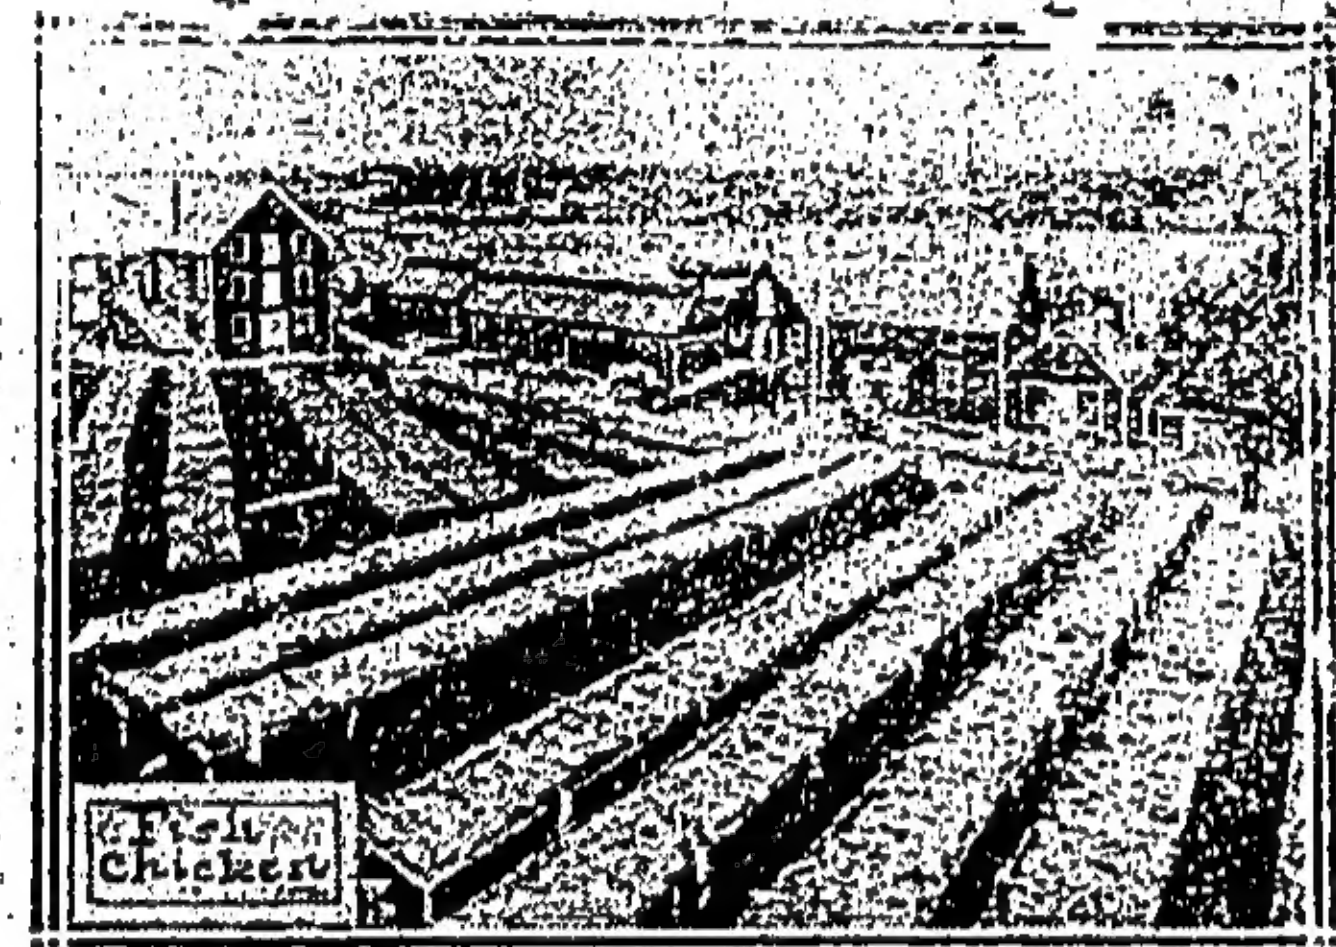

Edward I. Edwards.

"Wet" candidate, Governor Edwards, of New Jersey, has been elected United States Senator, defeating Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, President Harding's closest personal friend and adviser.

Former Mayor of Visalia, California, began his career as a telegrapher in the Civil War. He is now, at seventy-eight, trying to retire, but before he can do so, the Postal Telegraph must get permission to abandon the Visalia office, of which he has been manager for thirty-five years. He was telegraph operator at Grant's headquarters and asserts that he taught Thomas Alva Edison telegraphy when the electrical wizard was sixteen.

Fish lovers are very fond of Digby chickens, which are really fish, but are named chickens because of their luscious tenderness. The fish is of the herring family and is particularly good when dried. The fishing town of Digby Nova Scotia is where they are dried, on these huge drying tables.

For photographing the human voice and reproducing it, not as a picture, but as the sound of the voice itself, a new device, known as the Pello-Photophone, has been perfected by Charles A. Hoxie, of the General Electric Co., Schenectady, N. Y. It is believed the machine will make the talking motion picture a reality.
